THE JAMESTOWN CELEBRATION.

"The sun-dial'd towers, the gorgeous palace,
The colonnades, the great globe itself,
Yes, all that RBhabert shall display,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,
All that RBhabert ever did display,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,
And, like this whisper'd, sanguine toil,"

As our dear friend, the bard of nature, has sung it, so it is being sung this day at Jamestown. Our arrival here was on the 13th of May, and we have been seated upon the bow of our boat and contemplating the scene before us.

Can we not believe that this is the same magnificent house that has remained through a century and a half? Can we not see the same portraits that have been hung in the same rooms? Can we not hear the same voices that have been heard in the same rooms? Can we not see the same faces that have been seen in the same rooms? Can we not feel the same emotions that have been felt in the same rooms?

The scenery around is magnificent. The mountains are covered with green trees, and the river flows peacefully. The air is fresh and pure, and the sky is clear. It is a beautiful day, and we are grateful to be here.

As we look out over the river, we can see the city of Jamestown, which is located on the bank of the James River. The city is a popular tourist destination, and we are happy to be able to see it.

The history of Jamestown is rich and interesting. It is the site of the first permanent settlement in the United States, and it has been a center of commerce and culture for centuries. We are proud to be able to visit this historic site.

In conclusion, we would like to say that our trip to Jamestown has been a wonderful experience. We have learned a lot about the history of this place, and we have enjoyed the beautiful scenery. We would recommend this trip to anyone who is interested in history or nature.
